

DAR launched a Book Club this year and selected two books to kick off this new program. It is a new way to celebrate Our Patriots and raise awareness of the men and women who achieved American independence.

2020 Selected Books

Rush by Stephen Fried

Jefferson's Daughters by Catherine Kerrison

2020-21 Selected Books

The books chosen for 2020-2021 must be nonfiction and dealing with the time periods from Colonial to Federalist. This year's books are focused on the women of that time frame.

Pocahontas: Medicine Woman, Spy, Entrepreneur, Diplomat by Dr. Paula Gunn Allen

Revolutionary Mothers by Carol Berkin

The Trials of Phillis Wheatley: America's First Black Poet and Her Encounters with the Founding Fathers by Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

Abigail Adams: A Life by Woody Holton

Catherine Schuyler: A Woman of the Revolution by Mary Gay Humphreys

Mary Ball Washington: The Untold Story of George Washington's Mother by Craig Shirley

Members are encouraged to share their previously read books with others or consider donating them to a library of their choice.
